

1D

2D

What is a barcode?

A barcode is an image containing information that is encrypted by means of a special algorithm. This information may be a character string or specially formatted information (address card, internet address, ...). Different barcodes exist:

Antrow software development
Marktplatz 32
DE-83115 Neubeuern
Germany
08035 9676073
support@antrow.com
<http://barcodeocr.antrow.com>